Preschoolers are often frightened of strangers, imagery, creatures or the dark. Many school-age children worry about school performance, or illness. An important part of a child's growth involves learning how to cope with common fears of childhood. Caregivers, including ECE teachers can play a crucial role in helping children develop skills for managing feelings and coping with fear and anxiety. For children to learn to manage these feelings effectively they need adult support and guidance. Strong relationships with children build resilience and coping strategies.	Cost: $20 per person Maximum 20 participants Pre-registration Required Certificate Provided

Fun Family Phonics
With Muriel Endersby

The Fun Family Phonics program is so popular because it appeals to the way children think and learn. Young detective, "Dave Fun," discovers all the alphabet letters by observing the world around him. In Book 1 and Book 1A, humorous stories about Dave and his family link the sounds and shapes of the lower and upper case alphabet letters. Singing the alphabet songs for each letter, together with the actions, pictures and games all reinforces learning. In Book 2 Dave discovers word building through rhymes and songs.

THE CANADIAN BACON OF PLAY:
EXPERIENTIAL GAMES, ACTIVITIES AND INITIATIVES ROOTED IN CANADIAN
HERITAGE
With Jeff Willis

Canada has an abundance of experiential games, activities, songs, and initiatives rooted in our First Nations, French and English heritage. Do we actually teach them to our children? What is experientially learning and teaching from a Canadian perspective? This is a workshop going beyond the Tim Horton, I love hockey and Eh Canadian workshop. We have our own approach and twist on education and working with children and youth. Attendees will spend time engaging in and learning the origins of play Canadian-style, from Inuit Tugging Games, the Iroquois Snow Snake Game, DIBS, Dox-en-eye, and Rounders to Birch Bark Containers, Métis-inspired Sash Bracelet, Log Cabin, Capture the Flag, "Je t'aime bien," "Je t'aime beacoup," and many more! Since Canada is unique in that we share many other cultures from across the globe, attendees will learn a variety of other cultural games that can be easily taught and played with children of all ages – after all, play is the work of children!
